GLOBAL CITIZENS AWARD RECIPIENT
Black Ecumenical Leadership Alliance, Inc.

The Black Ecumenical Leadership Alliance (BELA) is a coalition of leaders organized and founded in 1999 by Reverend Dr. Albert E. Chew, Jr. along with other Fort Worth pastors. Pastor Chew had a vision to bring Christian ministers together in an effort to impact and change the lives of people throughout Fort Worth, Texas, and the world.

BELA has accomplished many things since its inception and their financial assistance locally and around the world is remarkable. They provided $50,000 to victims of hurricane Katrina and $100,000 for hurricane victims in Haiti, scholarships totaling $150,000 to bring students from Swaziland to Fort Worth for Sister Cities’ Leadership Academy; and locally $25,000 for scholarship at Fort Worth Montessori School, as well as $300,000 towards St. Mary Ethiopian Orthodox Church to secure a church building. They have also focused on providing meals, food and hygiene items for the homeless along with assistance to countless churches throughout the area and across the United States.

The Black Ecumenical Leadership Alliance continues to work collaboratively to make a difference in the lives of people regardless of demographics.

In the last four years, DFW has experienced growth in international destinations and is one of only seven airports in the world offering service to more than 200 destinations. Last year, DFW launched new service to Shanghai and Hong Kong by American Airlines, as well as to Dubai, Qatar by Qatar Airways, and to Abu Dhabi by Etihad Airways. Also, Emirates Airline and Qantas Airways expanded their service from DFW to Dubai and Sydney by adding the Airbus A380, the largest passenger aircraft in the world. In May, American Airlines will launch new international service from DFW to Beijing, China. This route will mark DFW’s first nonstop connection to China’s capital city, and will expand America’s growing service to Asia from its largest hub and home airport.

DFW Airport is a major economic driver for the Dallas/Fort Worth region, generating about $32 billion in economic impact each year, with the Airport supporting more than 143,000 local jobs and over $9 billion in annual payroll.

They are a clear recipient of the Global Nexus Award because no one connects Fort Worth to the rest of the world better than Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport.
