

I hope it'll end in peace
I would try to see you in a heartbeat
Sadly you're across the world
I'm without you best friend
Maybe I'll see you again
But for now I'll hate these borders

I realized that these borders
Have little peace
I feel it tipping again
I'm without a heartbeat
Without you friend
I can't face the world

It's hard to be in this world
In this place that has borders
I can't reach you friend
I desire peace
I need you like my heartbeat
Maybe I'll see you again

I want to close the gap again
One as big as the world
I wish to hear your heartbeat
I remember these borders
Wishful thinking that tomorrow has peace
But today I can't see my friend

I dream I'll see you friend
But it's getting worse again
There's no peace
Many cracks in the world
Many more borders
But I'll try to fix it in a heartbeat

My heartbeat
My best friend
These borders
Can't stop me from seeing you again
Even so this world
Tries to break our peace

Borders can't bring peace
Heartbeat echoed into the world

Friend I hope to see you again
