INTRODUCTION

In 1956, President Dwight D. Eisenhower proposed the people-to-people concept. President Eisenhower thought that relationships fostered in this program would lessen the possibility of future world conflicts. This concept grew and eventually led to the creation of Sister Cities International (SCI). SCI is a nonprofit citizen diplomacy network creating and strengthening partnerships between U.S. and international communities in an effort to increase global cooperation at the municipal level, to promote cultural understanding and to stimulate economic development. SCI leads the movement for local community development and volunteer action by motivating and empowering private citizens, municipal officials and business leaders to conduct long-term programs of mutual benefit.

The City of Fort Worth joined SCI in 1985 and began actively seeking its first partner. Criteria for city partnerships include mutual interest, long-term commitment, financial resources for exchanges and programs, existing linkages, chamber relations, community support, cultural and educational venues, accessibility to a major airport and diplomatic relations. Fort Worth signed its first agreement with Reggio Emilia, Italy in 1985. Since then, relationships have been established with Nagaoka, Japan (1987); Trier, Germany (1987); Bandung, Indonesia (1990); Budapest, Hungary (1990); Toluca, Mexico (1998); and Mbabane, Swaziland (2004) and soon Guiyang, China.

Fort Worth Sister Cities (FWSCI) is a non-profit organization under contract with the City of Fort Worth to operate the Sister Cities program. It is a membership organization supported by membership dues, private donations, grants, special events, and by the City of Fort Worth. The mission of FWSCI is to advance peace through lasting relationships and international understanding.

Since its inception, FWSCI has won numerous awards for its outstanding programs. Used as a model throughout the country, FWSCI has developed unique and innovative programs in order to “take the U.S. abroad and bring the world back home.”

The organization’s success and accomplishments over the years is a direct result of dedicated, hard-working volunteers. FWSCI welcomes you as a volunteer and thanks you in advance for your efforts on behalf of this great city and the cause of peace.

This Volunteer Policy Manual provides you with some of the information you will need to be a successful volunteer. If you have any questions or comments after reviewing the manual, please contact the office at 871.632-7100 or email joseph@fwsistercities.org.

Fort Worth Sister Cities International Volunteer Manual

BECOMING A VOLUNTEER

Definition of Volunteer

A volunteer is anyone who is appointed by FWSCI to perform tasks on behalf of the organization without expectation of compensation.

Membership

All volunteers must be registered members of the organization. Membership in FWSCI is offered at many levels to meet the needs of youth, individuals, community organizations and businesses. For more information, visit our web site at www.fwsistercities.org.

Recruitment and Appointment

Because different volunteer opportunities exist throughout the organization, a variety of methods may be used to recruit and appoint volunteers.

Any staff member or member of the Board of Directors may appoint volunteers. Appointments may be made orally or in writing.

However, volunteers working in direct capacity with youth programs must be appointed in writing after completing a FWSCI Volunteer Application and undergoing a screening process, which will include:

- 1) a check of at least 3 personal references
- 2) a criminal history check
- 3) a personal interview conducted by a member of the staff
- 4) a review of driving record (if appropriate)
- 5) other procedures or activities deemed appropriate by staff or the Board of Directors.

Volunteers considered to have a direct involvement with youth programs include, but are not limited to, home hosts, in-bound and out-bound exchange leaders, in-bound and out-bound associate leaders, youth event chaperones, youth transportation providers, and teachers and aids of the International Leadership Academy program.

Volunteers who are not working with youth programs may still be required to complete a Volunteer Application and undergo a screening process at the discretion of staff or the Board of Directors. Positions in which this might be required include, but are not limited to, home hosts of adult visitors, delegation leaders for in-bound and out-bound adult programs, and providers of transportation.

EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY

FWSCI is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in employment and volunteer opportunities. No person will be denied opportunity for employment or volunteer positions or be subject to discrimination in any project, program, or activity because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, or handicap or disability.

ORIENTATION AND TRAINING

Due to the varied nature of volunteer activities for the organization, some volunteer roles will not require orientation or training. However, volunteers are encouraged to clarify any questions about their role and responsibility with staff or the person who appointed them.

Some volunteer positions will require more formal orientations or training. These include, but are not limited to:

- 1) any volunteer with leadership responsibility for the organization
- 2) any volunteer with leadership responsibility for a board-appointed committee
- 3) any volunteer with leadership responsibility or supervisory role over youth or youth programs
- 4) any volunteer with leadership responsibility for adult in-bound or out-bound programs.

The exact nature of the orientation and training will vary based on the details of the position. Orientations and/or training may be one-on-one or in a group.

SUPERVISION

All volunteers are appointed under the supervision of staff and the Board of Directors. The volunteer should consider the person who appointed him or her as his or her direct supervisor unless directed otherwise by the appointer. Any volunteer may contact the President/CEO to report any questions, concerns, or problems with a volunteer activity or with the volunteer's direct supervisor.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

FWSCI and its members represent the City of Fort Worth to many individuals and organizations around the world. Therefore, FWSCI insists volunteers maintain high ethical standards. In an effort to maintain these high standards, the following code of conduct is applicable to all volunteers, both as direct rules and as a general guideline for other areas of conduct, which may not be mentioned directly herein.

Reporting Violations

Any person who observes, learns of, or, in good faith, suspects a violation of the Code, must immediately report the violation to his or her supervisor, to the President/CEO, or to a member of the Board of Directors. Reported violations will be investigated and addressed promptly and will be treated with confidentiality to the extent possible. A violation of the Code may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of service. The President/CEO and/or the Board of Directors will review all violations and determine the disciplinary action.

Waivers of the Code of Conduct

Requests for a waiver of a provision of the Code must be submitted in writing to the President/CEO for review. Only the President/CEO or the Board of Directors has the authority to waive a provision of the Code.

Statements in the Code to the effect that certain actions may be taken only with “organizational approval” will be interpreted to mean the President/CEO or the Board of Directors must give prior approval before the proposed action may be undertaken.

Violations of Law

Any form of harassment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability is likewise prohibited.
